Federal Hearings and Appeals Services, Inc. (FHAS) has reviewed the objection made by the non-initiating party states a valid reason for the ineligibility and subsequent closure of DISP-884612. The non-initiating party made the following objection:

- Service denied on reprocessed claim.

As the case is ineligible, the IDRE entity fee will be refunded. If you believe that the case has been incorrectly determined ineligible, please provide a statement, as well as the required information, as to how the case is, in fact, eligible. Please email any questions or issues to IDRE@fhas.com.

IDRE ID: IDREApp-107

The No Surprises Act establishes a Federal independent dispute resolution (IDR) process for payment disputes between plans and issuers, and providers, facilities, or providers of air ambulance services that may seek a determination from an independent third party certified by the Departments of Health and Human Services, Labor, and the Treasury (the Departments).

The Departments have certified FHAS (IDREApp-107) as a certified IDR entity to make this independent determination.
